Hopkinsville, KY – June 19, 2020 –Hopkinsville-Christian County Public Library (HCCPL) is currently searching for an Imagination Library Coordinator.

The vacancy was left by Sarah Hardison when she accepted a new job with a company within the community. The Imagination Library position reports to the HCCPL Executive Director and is responsible for the early literacy program for children ages 0-5 years. This position includes education partnerships, community awareness, and fundraising.

DeeAnna Sova, HCCPL Executive Director, shared, “We have been so fortunate to have had 2 strong coordinators in this role previously. While there is still much work to be done, this is a great opportunity for an energetic, community-oriented literacy champion, to continue to grow the program.”

A full position description may be found at <https://hccpl.org/career-volunteer-opportunities/>. Applicants may send a resume and cover letter to director@hccpl.org.
